Doors Open Days is celebrated in September as part of the Council of Europe European Heritage Days. People can visit free of charge places of cultural and historical interest which are not normally open to the public. The event aims to encourage everyone to appreciate and help to preserve their built heritage. Doors Open Days is promoted nationally by The Scottish Civic Trust with part sponsorship from Historic Environment Scotland. Doors Open Days in Clackmannanshire is organised, coordinated and promoted by Clackmannanshire Heritage Trust, SC112838.
